

Securing political leadership and innovative funding to achieve Universal Health Coverage

Political leadership will be key in achieving Universal Health Coverage.

This interactive roundtable will explore how policymakers, civil society and other agencies can effectively collaborate to ensure health systems secure funding and meet the needs of the people that they are designed for.

Where: UNAIDS New York office, 801 2nd Avenue/43rd St. Room 201, 2nd floor, New York, 10017

When: 22 September, 2pm - 3:30pm

To join the session please email:

Amish.Laxmidas@unitenetwork.org or VarugheseN@unaids.org

Speakers

- Dr Shannon Hader, UNAIDS Deputy Executive Director; Assistant Secretary General, United Nations
- Mariam Jashi, Georgia, Member of Parliament; UNITE's MP & Chapter Chair for Eastern Europe and Central Asia
- Cary James, CEO, World Hepatitis Alliance
- Alan Donnelly, Convener of the G20 Health and Development Partnership